

Called History, Is Made Up

The brother of Ananias Spies, who served the latter as proxy in the Van Zandt marriage, is now urged to go a step further and die for him. He refuses, how ever, and says he'll do his best to do so.

The Tennessee Historical Society owns the following great-grandmother:

Mrs. and Mrs. W. B. Coates, of Jeffersonville, Ky., have just celebrated the thirtyeth anniversary of their marriage. They still live on the farm where they settled when they went to housekeeping. They have thirty-five grandchildren living and sixteen great-grandchildren.

There are also a few great-grand sons.

—Jack Franklin, an old colored porter in a Louisville tobacco warehouse, was sent into the collar to remove a bit of dirt that had been long accumulating. While at work he picked up a scattered army canteen, very heavy. He broke it open, and found $363.50 in pennies, dimes, paper quarters and half dollars, gold dollars, and $6 gold pieces. No one knows whose the money lion-house while drunk, and began firing in every direction. Lieutenant Lyons was obliged to shoot him before the man could be subdued. McIntyre is dangerously wounded.

Destructive Storms.

SEVER, COL., Feb. 20.—It is now determined that the late storm in Nebraska and Colorado was the most destructive in the history of those States. Many lives are feared, and many cattle are known to have been lost.

Election Board Sent to Jail.

CANTON, Pa., Feb. 20.—Judge Archbald, yesterday morning, ordered the election board of the Second District of the Twelfth ward to jail in default of $1,000 bail each tampering with the returns of the election on Tuesday last.

Russia Rejects Vatican Overtures.

MOSCOW, Feb. 30.—It is stated that the Russian government has rejected the overtures of the Vatican.

American Publishers' Association.
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—About fifty of the leading newspapers of this country have joined the American Publishers' Association, a protective and mutual assistance organization.

An Awful Murder.
CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—A Times special from Chicago, Mich., says: Mrs. P. F. Price, a respectable old lady, was brutally murdered last night, Wednesday night by a man who chopped her and mutilated her body. The object was robbery. Her husband was away. The murder was witnessed by a little girl. The man is now in jail but refuses to give his name.

troop, in which it is stated that two thirds ago a number of Englishmen came to this country, who have since been plotting to overthrow the government of Ohio, Ohio, and Kentucky, engaged in the purchase of horses. These men are believed to be secret agents sent out by the English government to secure horses for use in the war. The particular points necessary in the transaction are that the horses should be large and perfectly sound and to be obtained at unusual hardship.

recovered? Physician: "No, not city; but after consultation we have come to the conclusion that your case is an entirely new one, and we have decided to give your name to the medical world. We are confident that it will be provided that our diagnosis is confirmed by—the autopsy." (Patient immediately expires from fright.)

Paris Figaro.

"A little four-year-old girl in Melrose has a grandfather who is married to a second wife, and little Eleanor's mother had, in reply to questions concerning their relationship, said she did call her "step-grandma." Soon her father was overheard telling her that "grandma is not our truly grandma, but a walking grandma!"—London Traveler.

It is doubtful if they are sincere in their purpose. The intelligent men of the country who have taken on this question, understand the animus of the Senate's action. As for those who are less informed, we suppose they will continue to claim as the property of the Republican party, and the President, the colored race in the contest, will still be represented to us as their inborn enemy.—Boston Herald.
